

S. JAMES MCGIVERAN III, CFA, CPA

Vice President
Research Analyst
Franklin Templeton Fixed Income Group
Franklin Advisers, Inc.
San Mateo, California, United States

James McGiveran is a research analyst focused on the high yield and investment grade corporate bond universe. His primary coverage includes the aerospace, defense, shipping, trucking, rail, airline, restaurant, and food and beverage industries.

Mr. McGiveran joined Franklin Templeton in 2006, directly after he graduated with an M.B.A. with Honors from Columbia University's Graduate School of Business. Prior to business school, he was an investment banking associate with Citigroup and an auditor and transaction advisory associate with Arthur Andersen LLP.

Mr. McGiveran holds a B.S. in accounting from Villanova University. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charterholder.