Performance Review
ONE-MONTH KEY PERFORMANCE DRIVERS

	Currencies	Duration	Sector Allocation	Security Selection
HELPED	Norwegian krone overweight	Poland overweight	US corporate high-yield industrial bonds overweight	Hard-currency emerging market bonds
	Mexican peso overweight	Mexico overweight	US Treasuries underweight	US mortgage-backed securities
	Polish zloty overweight	China underweight	Hard-currency emerging market bonds overweight	US corporate investment-grade industrial bonds
HURT	Euro underweight	Eurozone overweight	—	US corporate high-yield industrial bonds
	Japanese yen overweight	—	—	—
	British pound overweight	—	—	—

- The fund's security selection and sector allocation contributed to relative results, particularly positioning in hard-currency emerging market bonds. Positioning in US corporate investment-grade industrial bonds also added value, as did an overweight allocation to US corporate high-yield industrial issues, although this was diluted by the negative impact of selection in this area.
- The fund's local market allocation also bolstered relative performance, namely overweight allocations to Uruguay, South Africa, Poland and Colombia.
- There were no significant detractors from relative returns.

Outlook & Strategy

- The prognosis for the US remains unclear, but we maintain our belief that the relative health of the US economy before the COVID-19 outbreak, and the expansionary fiscal and monetary policies now in place, should help the country navigate the crisis.
- In currency markets, we anticipate further periods of volatility and expect investors to continue seeking out the safer havens, such as the US dollar.
- In our view, the proposed issuance of debt by the European Union should help reduce the risk premium in both European credit and peripheral government bonds.

6. Yield figures quoted should not be used as an indication of the income that has or will be received. Yield figures are based on the portfolio's underlying holdings and do not represent a payout of the portfolio. Past performance is not an indicator or a guarantee of future performance.

7. The average credit quality (ACQ) rating may change over time. The portfolio itself has not been rated by an independent rating agency. The letter rating, which may be based on bond ratings from different agencies (or internal ratings for unrated bonds, cash and equivalents), is provided to indicate the average credit rating of the portfolio's underlying investments and generally ranges from AAA (highest) to D (lowest). For unrated bonds, cash and equivalents, ratings may be assigned based on the ratings of the issuer, the ratings of the underlying holdings of a pooled investment vehicle, or other relevant factors. The ACQ is determined by assigning a sequential integer to all credit ratings AAA to D, taking a simple, asset-weighted average of investments by market value and rounding to the nearest rating. The risk of default increases as a bond's rating decreases, so the ACQ provided is not a statistical measurement of the portfolio's default risk because a simple, weighted average does not measure the increasing level of risk from lower-rated bonds. The ACQ may be lower if cash and equivalents are excluded from the calculation. The ACQ is provided for informational purposes only. Derivative positions are not reflected in the ACQ.

9. Ratings shown are assigned by one or more Nationally Recognized Statistical Rating Organizations ('NRSRO'), such as Standard & Poor's, Moody's and Fitch. The ratings are an indication of an issuer's creditworthiness and typically range from AAA or Aaa (highest) to D (lowest). When ratings from all three agencies are available, the middle rating is used; when two are available, the lowest rating is used; and when only one is available, that rating is used. Foreign government bonds without a specific rating are assigned the country rating provided by an NRSRO, if available. The NR category consists of ratable securities that have not been rated by an NRSRO. The N/A category consists of nonratable securities (e.g., equities). Cash includes equivalents, which may be rated.

10. Beta, Information Ratio and Tracking Error information are measured against the Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate Index.

11. Information Ratio is a way to evaluate a manager's ability to outperform a benchmark in relation to the risk that manager is assuming, with risk defined as deviation from the benchmark. This measure is calculated by dividing the portfolio's excess return (portfolio return less the benchmark return) by the tracking error (derived by taking the standard deviation of the monthly differences between the portfolio return and the benchmark return over time).
